Messrs. E. H. & H. Chapman;

Dear sirs:-

You will recollect I called on you a few days ago, in reference to the value of a collection of coins which belonged to a client of mine, and from which she realised a certain amount of money. Upon referring to my papers I find I was in error in stating that the proceeds of the sale were $300. The amount realised was $400, and the sale was made in 1876. I have questioned my client in reference to the Colonial six-pence, which she says, was copper, dated 1616, with a hog's head on one side and a ship on the other, and about the size designated on the enclosed paper, which she drew herself. She does not recollect the designation of numerical value on it, but thinks there was some lettering on it. She seems to be disinclined to give up the notion that there were two silver dollars of 1804, and four of 1805, but says she will turn the matter over in her mind, and let me hear from her again. She says that there was another coin in the collection which she has since recollected; An American cent of 1783, with the bust of George Washington on it. She has been told that there was no such coin, and she has never received any information of any one who has seen it but she is very emphatic in her assertion that she had such a coin.

I enclose you my check for $10 00, in accordance with our understanding, for which please make out for me a schedule of the coins to which she has referred, by the impressions you have, and the information she has given us, showing their respective value. I shall want you to attend Court, at Media, some time during the week commencing April 6th, as a witness, but I will give you later information as to this, and will have you regularly subpoenaed. She agrees to our bargain that you are to be paid $20 00 per day for attending Court. I have no doubt I shall be able to manage the matter so that you shall not be under the necessity of attending Court more than one day.

Yours truly

Dear sir:

I have been intending to write to you for some time, but have put it off on account of other matters engaging my attention. The verdict of the jury resulted in a compromise, by which about 12/19 of the property was saved for Mrs Hanby, and the remainder was decided to belong to the creditor of her husband. It was a hard case as you probably saw, and no doubt the sympathies of the jury were largely influenced in favor of the old woman. I do not know whether the litigation will stop here or whether it will go further.

In the meanwhile I would be glad to have you let me know how many days you attended at Court, so that I may pay you the amount we agreed upon, which as I recollect it was fifteen dollars per day.

Yours truly,

W. B. Brannall
